

Hornton History Group presents

A Child Through Time

Take a walk through childhood locally, from the arrival of the Romans up to the present day.

A fascinating, informative and interactive event exploring some 2000 years of childhood. Find out what it was like to be a child in Hornton as the Civil War raged, or try your hand at the games medieval children would have played.

With loads of things to see and try it is a family weekend not to be missed!

- Risk a sniff of a Roman sauce
- Dress like a Saxon
- Let an archer's arrow fly
- Write like a medieval monk
- Let Old English bend your ear
- Learn about being evacuated

Hornton Pavilion. Saturday & Sunday 10 & 11 September 10am-6pm
BBQ 12pm-2pm. Refreshments. Entry free.
